

ARTIST: PAT SUTTLES (1932-2012)

Pat Suttles Bio: A native Atlantan, Pat graduated Magna Cum Laude from The University of Georgia with a major in art. She then completed studies in glaze chemistry at Georgia State University. Additionally, Pat studied as a resident at Penland School of Crafts in the late '60s and early 70's. Her work was in many mediums throughout her life but is best known for work in ceramics. Both wheel work and hand built sculpture. Her work has been exhibited and collected by The High Museum of Art in Atlanta, Georgia. Additionally, her work has been exhibited in

- Birmingham Museum of Art, Birmingham, AL
- Greenville County Museum of Art, Greenville, SC
- Hunter Museum of Art, Chattanooga, TN
- The Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, Winston, NC
- The Signature Gallery, Atlanta, GA
- Many other galleries and exhibits