April Newsletter

Welcome

Our season continues to unfold with Chamber Music Festival concerts and our upcoming Tour of Homes. We hope everyone enjoyed the Easter Holidays, and we invite you to come visit us in the coming months!

Valentina Lisitsa

15th annual Chamber Music Festival Concert

On April 9th, virtuoso pianist with dazzling musicality, Valentina performed in the Historic Auditorium of the Madison-Morgan Cultural Center. Valentina was back by popular demand and did not disappoint! She stunned the audience with her internationally acclaimed talents making the night a very intimate experience. The program even included a special encore performance with Artistic Director, Christopher Rex!

Don't miss our Upcoming Events!

Jelly, Rags & Monk: Turtle Island Quartet featuring jazz pianist, Cyrus Chestnut Friday, May 4 8PM

The extraordinary jazz pianist, Cyrus Chestnut, and the GRAMMY® winning Turtle Island Quartet are back together, displaying their formidable collective virtuosity. Making soulful and sweet connections that delve deeply into the jazz and classical traditions, the quintet embraces a range of composers on this brand new program- from Jelly Roll Morton to Thelonious Monk. ### Tour of Homes Friday & Saturday, May 5-6

We want to welcome you to beautiful and historic Madison, Georgia, and to the "Madison in May Spring Tour of Homes" sponsored by the Madison-Morgan Cultural Center.

For over sixty years, the generous owners of select historic and historic reproduction houses, gardens, and churches in our town have volunteered to open their doors for a weekend so that visitors may be briefly transported back to earlier eras -- this year from the 1820s to the early 1900s. For more information on homes on tour and ticketing please visit www.madisoninmay.com.

ASO: 40th Anniversary Concert Sunday, May 7 4PM

A special tribute to 40 years! Join the ASO making a special second visit to Madison in our anniversary season. Travel with the ASO on a musical journey through three capitols of Europe: Vienna, Paris, and London with Mozart's "A Little Night Music," Couperin's "Pieces en Concert" with celebrated cellist Daniel Laufer, and Haydn's grandest symphony of all, the London Symphony. This is an afternoon designed to carry you away with great music from great cities played by the most celebrated symphony orchestra of the entire southern USA.
