July E-Newsletter

Welcome

As we wrap up our 40th year at the Cultural Center, we would like to remember and reflect on how far we've come and look forward to the future. This year brought so many great experiences! Thanks to all our members, volunteers, and staff! We cannot wait to reveal our next season and take you on another journey through the arts!

Concert in the Park

Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet

On June 2nd, the sun was setting and the fireflies came out to play as a crowd gathered to watch the annual concert in the park, featuring the Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet. All ages enjoyed movie classics from Indiana Jones to Star Wars, as well as classics and Sousa marches. The night was definitely one to remember!

Thank you to Madison Main Street for partnering with us and the Brady Inn for sponsoring this event!

Christiania Trio

at Burge Plantation

On June 4th as it began to storm outside a different storm of musical talent was brewing inside the Burge Plantation Conservatory. Christopher Rex, along with David and Julie Coucheron, performed beautifully in an intimate setting.

Thank you to Betsy & Sandy Morehouse and Libby & Ben Hendricks for sponsoring this event!

City of Angels Saxophone Quartet Closing Gala

On Sunday June 11, we welcomed the City of Angels Saxophone Quartet for a night of fun and jazz! Guests enjoyed a catered dinner by Hallie Jane's Catering surrounded by exposed brick and a beautiful sunset.

Thank you to Empire Mills, the Brady Inn, and Alla & Charles Campbell for sponsoring this wonderful event!

City of Angels Family Concert & Bike Parade

The morning of June 12th started off with an adorable bike parade, followed by a concert by the City of Angels Saxophone Quartet in the Main Auditorium. The band played Disney favorites as well as taught the kids a little bit about the different types of saxophones they were playing. It was definitely one for the young and the young at heart!

Thank you to our Bike Parade Partner The Painted Pineapple and Anonymous and Central Georgia EMC for sponsoring the Family Concert!
We hope to see you again next year!

July 3rd Event

We loved seeing everyone out to celebrate the 4th with us on Monday! Here are a few photos of the very patriotic event. Thank you to Pot's BBQ, Antique Sweets and Athens Classic City Band for joining the celebration!

Don't miss our Upcoming Events!
