Spring Supper
Honor Madison in May Honorees

On April 27th, Christine Smith and Mary Ann Chen hosted the annual Spring Supper, honoring the Madison in May Honorees for their contributions to the Cultural Center. The event was a great success, with attendees enjoying delicious food and lively conversation. The Honorees were presented with plaques and certificates of appreciation for their outstanding contributions to the Cultural Center. The event was a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the achievements of these distinguished individuals.

Award received from the Georgia Trust
Excellence in Sustainable Rehabilitation

On Friday, April 26th, the Madison-Morgan Cultural Center was honored with the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation Award for Excellence in Sustainable Rehabilitation. The award recognizes the Cultural Center’s commitment to preserving its historic building while also making it a welcoming, accessible, and sustainable space for the community. The Cultural Center is proud to be a leader in sustainable rehabilitation efforts in Georgia and is committed to preserving and celebrating our rich history.

Visual Arts

40th Anniversary Exhibition

On April 20th, the Cultural Center opened its doors for an exhibition in celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Cultural Center. The exhibition features works by 40 artists who have exhibited at the Cultural Center over the past four decades. The exhibition showcases a diverse range of artistic styles and mediums, including paintings, sculptures, and photographs. Visitors are encouraged to explore the exhibition and discover the talent of the many artists who have contributed to the Cultural Center over the years.

Friday, May 5
8PM

The extraordinary jazz pianist, Cyna Chestnut, and the Turtle Island Quartet, led by Ira David Wood III, will perform a night of unforgettable music. Auditorium will be a perfect setting for this unforgettable experience. From classic jazz standards to modern compositions, this is an event not to be missed. The performance will be a testament to the enduring power of music and its ability to inspire and connect us.

Tour of Homes
Friday & Saturday, May 5-6

To welcome you to our beautiful and historic Madison, Georgia, and to mark the Madison Spring Tour of Homes sponsored by the Madison-Morgan Cultural Center.

For our sixty years, the generous owners of select historic and historic-reproduction homes, gardens, and downtown businesses have volunteered their time to open their doors for a weekend that visitors may be surprised to learn dates back to the late 1800s when the islands home to the early residents. For more information on homes on tour and ticketing, please visit www.madisontours.com.
